About the Estate:

Coralie GOUMARRE was the 1st woman to take the destiny of the family estate, and has been for 9 generations. Before, she and her parents as well as her ancestors, have left their mark on the field. Continuing this long line of Rhône winemakers, Coralie's joie de vivre and modern, independent approach has brought new energy to the domaine. Organic certified, COMBE LATOUR is located in Courthézon, fifty-six of the estate's uninterrupted sixty hectares are planted with vines of 55 years old on average, naturally producing upper quality and low yields.

Woman of strong character, described "strong-minded and impressively talented" by R. PARKER, Coralie GOUMARRE does research balance in her wines and wishes to give a very personal tone to her production, between expertise and freedom of creation. 1st time I had the chance to taste her wines years ago, I've been extremely and nicely surprised by her convivial approach and once her wines tasted... wow!!! Everything was clear and impossible to forget: So distinctive mouth-watering wines with a creative and feminine touch and elegance.

Vinified & aged in concrete tanks with no sulfur addition during the vinification process, COMBE LATOUR IGP Vaucluse is an additional & perfect illustration of Coralie's talent to produce and vinify silky, tender, warm, softly peppery serious Organic wines!

Tasting Notes:

Sappy, powdery and so juicy nose on black fruits and spices, with a subtle Provence hint! Ample, mellow and generous palate and length with a great aromatic persistence.
