About the Estate:

A family estate for several generations, Château LUSSEAU is a 19th century building situated in Ayguemortes-les-Graves, a few miles away from Bordeaux, bordering the Pessac-Léognan Appellation. The estate represents only 7 hectares (16.29 acres) of vines on soils of gravels on top of layers of clay, predominantly planted with Red grapes and cultivated like a garden

Since 1997, the young Bérengère QUELLIEN (who graduated from the Bordeaux Agricultural High) has run the estate and taken care of the vinification, while Jean-Thomas QUELLIEN and Marie Neige de GRANVILLIERS keep sharing their experience of the viticulture with their daughter. Since then, slowly but surely, Bérengère made her "revolution" at the Château LUSSEAU wines – a feminine and unmatched "touch."

After a few years of regular contacts, visits, and tastings at the estate, we finally made our decision and feel extremely confident and happy about this new selection!

Tasting Notes:

Soon to come.

Press Review:

« Soft...with modest plum and black cherry fruit backed by an anise hint on the finish. » - JM, Wine Spectator, Web Only 2014

2010 Vintage: « Open-knit, with cherry and red currant notes, showing a hint of lilac and a light pebbly edge on the lively finish. » - JM, Wine Spectator, Issue: Dec 31, 2013
