About the Estate:

The Domaine de la COQUILLADE, now known as Vignobles AURETO, was taken over in 2006 by the Wunderlis, supported in this venture by their friend Andrehas RIHS - Swiss businessman - renowned for his commitment to international cycling and owner of BMC high-tech bikes. AURETO is a magnificent estate and a 36 hectares (87 acres) vineyard, located in the "Parc Naturel Regional du Luberon" in Gargas - Southeastern extreme of the Rhône wine region of France - very close to Provence. Most of the vines' plots are surrounding the estate, on magnificent slopes superbly South-East exposed and overlooking the valley. All vines are of course taken care under Sustainable Agriculture and yield control.

Vignobles AURETO do produce 3 colors IGP Vaucluse wines (some including very special grape varieties such as Caladoc; crossing Grenache & Malbec, Chenanson & Marselan), 3 colors AOP Ventoux wines & an AOP Luberon. In addition to come from a superb region, a unique terroir (limestone-clayey with sediments and old alluvions from the Mediterranean sea) to be done with ultimate care, carefully considered cultivation and cutting-edge wine-making equipment, AURETO Wines are bottled in great looking packaging. Such as "Autan", each cuvée range has the name of a South of France wind.

I heard so much times about Domaine de la COQUILLADE famous place, the reputation of the owner, the highly recommended AURETO production... but never had the opportunity to taste any wines. By chance, when I did, was sat! AURETO Wines belong by far to the very best wines I ever tasted... ALL of them. I'm blown away and so proud to have the chance to represent them. Nothing equal.

Tasting Notes:

Food Pairing:

Press Review:

« Another outstanding wine is the 2015 Ventoux Autan...brought up in tank. It's a pretty, juicy, nicely textured effort that has classy notes of black cherries, resinous herbs, pepper and black raspberries. » - JD, Wine Advocate, Issue #228 (December 2016)
