Sustainable Agriculture Practices

About the Estate:

The Domaine de la COQUILLADE, now known as Vignobles AURETO, was taken over in 2006 by the Wunderlis, supported in this venture by their friend Andrehas RIHS - Swiss businessman - renowned for his commitment to international cycling and owner of BMC high-tech bikes. AURETO is a magnificent estate and a 36 hectares (87 acres) vineyard, located in the "Parc Naturel Regional du Luberon" in Gargas - Southeastern extreme of the Rhône wine region of France - very close to Provence. Most of the vines' plots are surrounding the estate, on magnificent slopes superbly South-East exposed and overlooking the valley. All vines are of course taken care under Sustainable Agriculture and yield control.

Vignobles AURETO do produce 3 colors IGP Vaucluse wines (some including very special grape varieties such as Caladoc crossing Grenache & Malbec, Chenanson & Marselan) crossing Grenache & Cabernet-Sauvignon, 3 colors AOP Ventoux wines & an AOP Luberon. In addition to come from a superb region, a unique terroir (limestone-clayey with sediments and old alluvions from the Mediterranean sea) to be done with ultimate care, carefully considered cultivation and cutting-edge winemaking equipment, AURETO Wines are bottled in great looking packaging. Such as "Tramontane", each cuvée range has the name of a South of France wind.

Tasting Notes:

Soon to come.

Gleaming blackberry, leathery earth, pepper & toast.

Food Pairing:

Vignobles AURETO suggests charcuterie, ham of wild boar, serrano, Provencale stew or blue cheese.

Press Review:

« Dark and ripe, with a hefty edge to the currant, plum and tobacco notes. Toast and licorice root accents add to the bass line. Delivers more guts than purity in the end. » - 88 Points, JM, Wine Spectator, Web Only 2017
