About the Estate:

"It all begins with a passion transmitted since 1898, which combines Terroir, grape varieties and winemaker." After Pierre, Gabriel, Jacky and Patrick, Fabien Castaing is the 5th generation to perpetuate wine family tradition, with environment respect.

Vignobles Fabien Castaing represents a 65 Hect. (160 acres) total vineyard - on the communes of Pomport, Cuneges & Sigoules - within 14 different plots, generating a great terroirs, exposures and altitudes diversity. Nearly 50 acres of the vineyard are located within the famous Monbazillac Appellation.

Located in Sigoules (south of Bergerac) on a clay-limestone plateau oscillating between 430 & 500 feet altitude, Chateau les Mailleries is an organically cultivated 27.18 acres' vineyard Fabien felt in love with, and acquired in 2016.

From the 1st tasting of Chateau Les Mailleries, fully understood Fabien Castaing Coup de Coeur and acquisition of this estate, and even more by seeing the vines exposure and terroir! Elegance, seduction & complexity. Marvelous illustration of Bergerac distinctiveness, especially with this really magnificent white Bergerac!

Tasting Notes:

"Dominated by finely perfumed Sauvignon Gris, this is delicious. Tropical fruits & floral perfumes are followed by richness, spice and balance with apricot and quince flavors. The wine is very fine, ready to drink." Roger Voss

Press Review:

"Even more intense than the previous vintage, this bright pale yellow color Bergerac, does immediately seduce with its fresh and tasty nose on citrus, exotic fruits and sour candies (pure expression of ripe Sauvignon and especially the dominant Sauvignon Gris). The intense fruitiness - tonic and suave at the same time - remains on a fleshy palate then silky and persistent, with citrus coming back on the length. A magnificent wine!." 3*** Exceptional Wine & Coup de Coeur - 2020 Guide Hachette des Vins.
