About the Estate:

A family estate for several generations, Château LUSSEAU is a 19th century building situated in Aygue-mortes-les-Graves, a few miles away from the city of Bordeaux, bordering the Pessac-Léognan Appellation. The estate represents only 7 hectares (16.29 acres) of vines on prime gravelly soils with layers of clay, predominantly planted with red grapes and cultivated with utmost care like a garden, being Organic Certified since the 2010 vintage.

Since 1997, the young Bérengère QUELLIEN (who is also a graduated oenologist) has run the estate and taken care of the vinification, while Jean-Thomas QUELLIEN and Marie Neige de GRANVILLIERS keep sharing their experience of the viticulture with their daughter. Since then, slowly but surely, Bérengère made her "revolution" at the Château LUSSEAU wines – with a feminine and unmatched "touch."

After nearly 20 years of relationship with Château LUSSEAU and Bérengère, we are not only happy and confident... but also proud to suggest you these jewels not to miss.

Tasting Notes:

Elegant & flattering Graves. Deep, harmonious & generous in fruits and charm, without "hiding" the terroir, with mineral, blackcurrant and gun-flint notes. All in balance, perfectly structure, superbly silky and full bodied.

Food Pairing: Lamb rack. Thick, juicy, gourmet burgers.

Press Review:

"This wine holds great promise. Rich both in tannins and black fruits, it is concentrated, the structure providing a great vehicle for aging. Dense blackberry flavors are powered with ripe tannins." Roger Voss 92 Pts - Wine Enthusiast April 2023

2019 Vint. "Pretty nose of red and blue fruits, minty herbs & spring flowers. [...] Freshness & elegance are the buzzwords here." Jeb Dunnuck

"The estate has produced a wine with stylish black currant & gentle tannins. It's a fine wine, with the fruitiness of the vintage, the black currant fruits along with structure & potential." 90 Pts Roger Voss - Wine Enthusiast
